HONORS LOCAL TEACHER WITH $10,000 CLASSROOM MAKEOVER
AT HOLOWAY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL IN TUCSON, AZ
ON TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 2010

WHAT:

- To help protect our nation's children, Honeywell partnered with the National Center for Missing & Exploited Children® in creating the first-ever school-based national abduction prevention program Got 2B Safe! Think Smart. Take Charge. Developed in 2005, the program recognizes teachers with the greatest commitment to child safety.
- This year, 5 grand-prize winning teachers from across the country will receive classroom makeovers valued at $10,000; and another 100 first-prize winning teachers will receive gift certificates for classroom supplies valued at $500.

WHO:

- You have a local Grand Prize Winner whose lesson plan stood out from hundreds submitted: Stephanie Hayes, 3rd grade teacher at Holoway Elementary School in Tucson, AZ, who will reveal her winning $10,000 classroom makeover to her students, faculty, family, and other members of the community.
- Mrs. Hayes has leveraged the Got 2B Safe! rules of safety as core curriculum while teaching her 3rd grade students English, so they can live in a new country. The reading, writing, and speaking skills they learn will be presented in the form of a video newscast, shown at the morning announcements to teach all Holoway students the rules, as well as at their upcoming parents' night. Honeywell will present Ms. Hayes with an award for her efforts and dedication to protecting children.

- According to the U.S. Department of Justice, more than 800,000 children may be reported missing in a single year: that's an average of more than 2,100 each day. Most of these children are recovered quickly and safely, but there are many who are still missing.
- The Got 2B Safe! program has been distributed to more than 72,000 U.S. elementary schools, reaching more than 5 million students, and teaches critical and potentially life-saving lessons to eight to ten year olds through four simple and specific rules:
 - Check First -- Children should always check with parents and guardians before accepting gifts, rides or invitations from anyone, including friends, acquaintances and people they don't know.
 - Go With a Friend -- Simple and straightforward -- never go anywhere alone. Being with another person in public is safer and more fun.
 - It's My Body -- Anyone who violates the sanctity of a child's body or threatens or attempts to do so is committing a crime. Tell your children it is okay to say "NO!"
 - Tell a Trusted Adult -- Teach your children to TELL a trusted adult -- parent, guardian, teacher, etc. -- if anyone or anything makes them feel scared, uncomfortable or confused.
